after a student choir's practice session at a helsinki villa turns deadly detective maria kallio finds herself in the middle of the action and her first murder case someone in the group wanted playboy tommy peltonen dead but that's one song these suspects refuse to sing behind the choir's jovial facade lies bitter passion and the victim's seemingly perfect life hid a host of sins that made him a target of almost everyone in the villa as a young female and a redhead to boot maria knows that solving this case will help her overcome her perceived shortcoming in the eyes of her colleagues but as the case takes startling twists and turns and friends and foes become interchangeable will she be able to piece together the clues before the killer strikes again after solving her first murder and leaving the helsinki police department behind maria kallio thought that a move to the neighboring city of espoo would signal a fresh start a chance to not only put her new law degree to use but to nurture her budding romance with antti sarkela but when she discovers the strangled body of a new acquaintance old habits die hard for the redheaded sleuth especially since the accused is not only the victim's fiancé but a member of Antti's family though she works as a legal counselor Kallio soon finds herself unofficially investigating the murder now labeled a sex crime while Antti's relative may have some peculiar sexual tendencies Kallio doubts that the man she's agreed to defend is capable of the crime to crack the case Kallio will have to pull back the curtain on Espoo high society and uncover a secret someone is willing to kill to keep hidden her enemy the latest addition to Lehtolainen's bestselling crime series sends intrepid detective Kallio into the dark side of human passion this collection of articles studies the development of crime fiction in Denmark Finland Iceland Norway and Sweden since the 1960s offering the first English language study of this widely read and influential form since the first Martin Beck novel of Maj Sjöwall and Per Wahloo appeared in 1965 the socially critical crime novel has figured prominently in Scandinavian culture and found hundreds of millions of readers outside Scandinavia but is there truly a Scandinavian crime novel tradition Scandinavian crime fiction identifies distinct features and changes in the Scandinavian crime tradition through analysis of some of its most well-known writers Henning Mankell Stieg Larsson Anne Holt Liza Marklund Leena Lehtolainen and Arnaldur Indriðason among others focusing on Scandinavian crime fiction's snowballing prominence since the 1990s articles zoom in on the transformation of the genre's social criticism study the significance of cultural and geographical place in the tradition and analyze the cultural politics of crime fiction including struggles over gender equity sexuality ethnicity history and the fate of the welfare state Scandinavian crime fiction maps out the contribution of Scandinavian crime writers to contemporary European culture and society making the volume valuable to scholars and the interested public since the late 1960s the novels of Sjöwall and Wahloo's Martin Beck detective series along with the works of Henning Mankell Hakan Nesser and Stieg Larsson have sparked an explosion of Nordic crime fiction grim police procedurals treating urgent sociopolitical issues affecting the contemporary world steeped in noir techniques and viewpoints many of these novels are reaching international audiences through film and television adaptations this reference guide introduces the world of Nordic crime fiction to English-speaking readers caught between the demands of conscience and societal strictures the detectives in these stories like the heroes of Norse mythology know that they and their world must perish but fight on regardless of cost at a time of bleak eventualities Nordic crime fiction interprets the bitter end as a celebration of the indomitable human spirit

Scandinavian popular novels and films have flourished in the last thirty years in crime and fantasy in Scandinavia Andrew Nestingen argues that the growth and visibility of popular culture have been at the heart of the development of heterogeneous publics in Scandinavia in opposition to the homogenizing influence of the post-World War II welfare state novels and films have mobilized readers and viewers serving as a preeminent site for debates over individualism collectivity national homogeneity gender and transnational relations crime and fantasy in scandinavia provides insight into the changing nature of civil society in scandinavia through the lens of popular culture nestingen develops his argument through the examination of genres where the central theme is individual transgression of societal norms crime films and novels melodramas and fantasy fiction among the internationally known writers and filmmakers discussed are henning mankell aki kaurismäki lukas moodysson and lars von trier
